Hey everyone. This is Richard Speight, the guy who plays "Bill" on the show. I had the good fortune to be a guest on Shaun's internet show last night. I really enjoyed getting the chance to speak to a few of you and to get a sense of your passion for and devotion to our show first hand. I was also struck by the caliber of the people I spoke to: former military personnel, wives and families of current military personnel, teachers, mothers, fathers - all of them well spoken and incredibly sincere. I know the quality of people I was fortunate to work with every day on the set. I am, however, surprised and thrilled to see that our core audience is cut from that very same cloth. I've been in this business a day or two and have never seen a reaction like this. Thank you. Thank you. Thank you. Thanks for what you are doing and who you are. You keep doing what you're doing and fighting the good fight and I promise you, if you get "Jericho" back on the air, we will all do our dead level best to give you the kind of show you want and so richly deserve. I know that you are forging this battle amid the hustle and bustle of your own busy lives. I for one am flattered beyond words and am forever in your debt. Again, thank you and - in the immortal words of the might Trojans of USC - FIGHT ON!!!
