Unbelievable! Unreal! Unprecedented! Way to go, gang. I've said before and I'll say it again - Jericho fans rule. Everyone involved with Jericho is so amazed and impressed by your passion and devotion...not to mention your success! We are over the moon about getting a shot at a second season, and it is all because of you. I for one cannot thank you enough. If I could, I'd buy each and every one of you a beer (or a sparkling water for you non-drinkers). Actually, what I'd probably do is get a couple of kegs and throw a thing. That'd be cool. And I'd do it at Bob's house because he has a great yard for entertaining. Plus he lives really near me so if I overdo it a bit I can just walk home. That's what I'd do if I could. But I can't. Bob won't let me. But next time you're having a beer (or sparkling water) at your favorite watering hole, just know that if I were there, the next round would be on me.
